STOP THE FRACKIN' LIES!

On Monday, January 25, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. various obstructionist groups will converge at the West Side of the New York State Capitol in Albany, to rally AGAINST natural gas exploration. These groups have continued to spread lies and outrageous accusations about the exploration of natural gas in New York's Marcellus Shale, and now they're going to Albany to try and convince lawmakers with their tall tales to stop drilling Marcellus before it even starts.

SPREAD THE TRUTH!

To help combat the deceptive accusations of the extremists, our rally will also be held on Monday, January 25, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. in Albany, at Lafayette Park, across from the Capitol. Our opponents are expecting a crowd; and our numbers need to be DOUBLE! The joint landowner coalitions and various other groups are joining together by the busloads to let all New Yorkers know the truth about natural gas exploration.
